The US Academy of Professional Dialogue

Join us in a participative webinar with Eelco de Geus

August 14, 2020 12:00-2:00pm EDT

Eelco de Geus will enchant you with his warmth, his music and his wisdom about how people build relationships through dialogue. He has learned all of this through his work as a therapist, coach, consultant and international teacher for systemic-dialogic process work. He takes as his purpose to improve the quality of relationship by building community in personal relationships and in organizations. Spirituality and music are important aspects of his work as a consultant and therapist. He founded the Dialogue Academy Vienna which provides dialogical learning spaces for Dialogue Process Work and dialogue facilitation.

Register now

To register go to:
Eelco de Geus webinar

For those who want to read ahead, you can download his paper here.

A Participative Webinar

During the webinar your cohosts, Nancy Dixon and Linda Ellinor, will interview Eelco to provide an overview of his thinking. We will then move participants into small groups for reflections on Eelco's interview and how his experience has meaning in our lives and work with dialogue.To close our time we will come back together with questions and reflections from our small groups.